

LOWER SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Student Shout Out

Mrs. Susan sent in a recommendation for our Student Shout Out section of the newsletter. Here is what she wrote.

“ I would like to recognize Robert Marona for student spotlight. Since the beginning of school I have found Robert to be kind, courteous, and helpful. He excels in library by being helpful with books and respectful of other classmates! Keep up the good work! ”

IXL Competition

From September 8th to September 15th, students in kindergarten through fifth grade engaged in a friendly competition.

Students used the IXL math platform to determine who could successfully tackle the highest number of math questions. Congrats to everyone for all their hard work!

In the past 7 days, students in the Lower School answered 33,880 questions, practicing 1,333 skills, all based on math standards of South Carolina.

The top three students were:

1st: Sailor Peterson, Kindergarten

2nd: Makynzie Lance, 4th

3rd: Robert Marona, 5th

The class with the highest average number of math questions per student completed was...

Kindergarten

Congrats!
