Summer Reading for rising 3rd graders

Students are to choose at least 3 of the books listed below to read for the summer. Journals should be kept on each book read and should include the title of the book, author, list of main characters, and a summary of the story. Each journal entry should end with the student's personal thoughts on the book. Spiral notebooks can be used for journaling. Journals will be turned in the first day of school to Mrs. Ferguson.

Students should choose one of the activities below to go along with just one of the books they read. This should be brought to school on the first day and they can share this with the class.

Activities:

1. Half size poster illustrating your book choice. Poster should include the title, author, illustrator, characters, and important facts of the book. Pictures (drawn or printed) should be included.
2. Lapbook ( ideas can be found on Pinterest) Lapbook should include the title, author, illustrator, characters, and important facts of the book. Pictures (drawn or printed) should be included.
